

Holiday Letting Terms & Conditions between you (The Hirer) and the Owners of Creekside Cottage (The Owner)

Contract for hire

1. A contract for hire will be made between you and Creekside Cottage's Owners (The Owner) once (i) you have completed a provisional booking request, ii) you have paid the Booking Deposit requested by the Owner (or the total cost of the Holiday let if less than 8 weeks before the commencement of the Let) and (iii) the Owner has issued a Booking Confirmation document. At no stage is a relationship of Landlord and Tenant created between the parties
2. You and each member of your party must be insured against personal liability during your stay, either as a standalone policy or under a UK Holiday or Travel insurance policy which meets your further needs, for example in the event of your cancellation or curtailment etc. We will always assume this to be the case when applying our Terms and Conditions and you must provide evidence of your personal liability insurance cover if requested.
3. Your hire period commences at 1600 hours on your arrival day unless an earlier time is agreed with the owners in advance, and ends automatically on the earlier of the following:
 - a. 0930 hours on your departure date
 - b. The closure of Creekside Cottage by law for any reason
 - c. Notification by the Owner that your contract for hire is terminated because of any force majeure circumstances outlined in paragraph 34 below.
 - d. Notification by the Owner that your contract for hire is terminated because of your breach of these Holiday Let Terms and Conditions.
4. The Owner welcomes families, friends and couples, but will decline any booking where the lead guest is under the age of 25 years, or the provisional booking is otherwise considered unsuitable by the Owner for any reason, in which case any deposit you made at the time of your provisional booking will be fully refunded.
5. No less than 2 and no more than 5 named individuals may stay overnight at Creekside Cottage at any time. The full names and ages of all members of your party must be made at the time of making your provisional booking, and any subsequent changes to your party must be notified to the Owner in advance since this may affect insurance and pricing. For the purpose of this condition, any child over 24 months at the time of your holiday counts as a person however infants under 24 months do not, provided they occupy a cot.
6. The Owner will provide the following for your self-catering stay
 - Washing up liquid, J cloth, Pan Cleaner sponge, Dishwasher tablet, and various cleaning materials under the kitchen sink.
 - Tea towels and oven glove
 - Duvets and pillows
 - Bed linen bath and hand towel for each occupant.
 - A cot for infants under 2 years
 - A highchair for infants under 2 years
 - Squirty soap in each bathroom
 - At least one toilet roll in each bathroom
 - Dog poo bags can normally be found in the utility room next to the back door but guests should also bring their own supply.
 - Fuel and kindling for first use of the woodburning stove or open fire (December and January lettings only)

Guest Safety

7. The Owner is not liable for any accident or injury occurring at the premises except where the accident or injury is as a result of the negligence or wilful misconduct of the Owner.
8. The safety of you and your guests during your stay is extremely important to the Owner, so it is very important that you and your party are familiar with and observe the risk assessments, appliance operating instructions, safety and hygiene information contained within the Owners Guest Information Pack at all times during your stay and which also forms part of these Terms and Conditions. The latest version will be made available to you to view and download from the password protected "Guest Area" of the Owners website approximately 3 weeks prior to your holiday. For your convenience a folder containing the pack is also provided in Creekside Cottage, but please be aware this is re-printed only at the beginning of the season so may not always contain the latest updates.
9. Third party suppliers or service providers engaged by you or any member of your party are not permitted on the premises at any time during your stay without your obtaining prior permission from the Owner.

Payment and Cancellation Policy

10. A 30% Booking Deposit must be paid by you before the Owner confirms a Booking. The balance of the booking plus a Good Housekeeping Deposit of £200 is due for payment no less than 8 weeks before the first day of your holiday. If your provisional booking is made less than eight weeks before your holiday starts, full payment is required plus the £200 Good Housekeeping Deposit before the Owners will confirm your booking.
11. The Owner may cancel your Booking if the full cost of the booking and Good Housekeeping Deposit has not been received by 8 weeks (56 days) before the first day of the holiday let, in which case no refund of your deposit will be due.
12. Cancellation by you of a confirmed booking before the start of your stay should be advised to the Owner in writing and will be subject to the following refund policy in fairness to both parties;
 - a. Any Good Housekeeping deposit received will always be refunded.
 - b. If you cancel more than 90 days before the first day of your holiday the Owner will refund all payments made to the Owner by you.
 - c. If you cancel between 29 and 55 days before the first day of your holiday, the Owner will refund 50% of the Booking Deposit paid and 50% of the balance paid for the booking.
 - d. No refund can be made if you cancel less than 29 days before the first day of your holiday

Pre-arrival and Arrival

13. You will receive instructions to access the password protected "Guest Area" of our website and keysafe code from the Owner by email approximately 3 weeks before your holiday. The Guest Information Pack includes comprehensive pre-arrival advice, directions and arrival instructions, together with important safety information, and operating instructions for services and appliances.
14. You must provide or update the Owners with the full name and age of each member of your party at the time of making your provisional booking and any changes to your party before the commencement of your holiday.
15. Please look after your keys carefully. If you should lose a key please inform the Owner so that a replacement can be arranged.

16. Please do not enter Creekside Cottage before your hire period commences.
17. A single parking space is provided within the designated area of the front lawn and no other motor vehicle or trailer is permitted on the lawn at any time. Additional parking may be available on the public road opposite the front garden but this is entirely subject to availability and at the vehicle owner's risk and you must advise this to all relevant members of your party.
18. The Owner has been careful to ensure that the information provided about Creekside Cottage is informative and accurate, but you should check all the relevant details and clarify anything with the Owner before you arrive. The Owner will not accept responsibility for any inaccurate, misleading or incomplete information about Creekside Cottage on the website or in any advertisements and you must satisfy yourself by asking any questions you may have by email exchange or telephone with the Owner prior to your arrival.
19. In the unlikely event you find the Cottage unfit for your occupation upon arrival, you must contact the Owner immediately in order that an investigation can be made. The Owner will not consider any claim or complaint arising from an alleged defect or misdescription of Creekside Cottage unless you inform the Owner within 24 hours of your arrival at Creekside Cottage.

Your obligations

20. The Owner makes every effort to ensure that Creekside Cottage is clean and well presented on your arrival. You should report any problems, damage or defects noticed on arrival to the Owner within 24 hours, failing which the Owner will assume you are responsible for any breakage, loss or damage identified after checkout. An email or voicemail message should be left on the contact number if the call is not answered. This is the quickest way of resolving any problems that might occur. Claims for goodwill payments or compensation for issues or problems that were not reported within 24 hours of arrival or as soon as they occurred will not be accepted.
21. The Owner respectfully asks that you and your guests fully observe any instructions, house rules or safety related guidance in the Guest Information Packs provided
22. You must maintain and leave Creekside Cottage and all furniture, fittings and effects, in or on the property, in the same good order, state of repair, condition and cleanliness as you found it at the start of your holiday
23. Use of the open fire, woodburning stove, smoking, vaping, lighted candles, indoor fireworks or naked flames from any source are strictly prohibited inside Creekside Cottage, as are fireworks, flares, barbecues and bonfires which are also prohibited on the front or rear lawns.
24. In the event of an appliance breaking down, please switch it off at the mains or isolator switch and report it to the owner, who will have the matter investigated and rectified as quickly as possible. Except at their discretion, the Owner will not accept any claim from you should it not be possible to resolve the issue immediately, (eg. a part may need to be ordered).
25. The Owner understands that accidents occasionally happen and may not ask you to pay for minor breakages or losses, however these must still be reported straightaway so that a replacement can be arranged for future guests. Breakages, loss or damage during the holiday should be paid for by you before departure if requested.
26. The Owner will try to make arrangements with you in advance but may enter Creekside Cottage at any reasonable time by prior notice to carry out any essential maintenance or emergency repairs.
27. The Owner is entitled to terminate your hire and repossess Creekside Cottage at any time where in their opinion you or your guests have not observed these terms and conditions or caused significant or malicious damage. In these exceptional circumstances there will be no refund for the remaining hire period and you will be held responsible for any loss incurred by the owner including the costs of repair and reinstatement.

Pets

28. Up to 2 well behaved dogs are welcome by prior agreement with the Owner, at an extra charge per dog per booking. No cats or other pets are permitted. Dogs are accepted on condition that;
